

LOCAL MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Paragraphs Which Tell of the Happenings of Local Moment in Greater St. Joseph. Anything Has Occurred Deserving of Local Notice Can be Found in These Columns.

William B. Newmeyer, aged 78, died at his home, 2216 South Ninth street.

Money saved by having Roy M. Jackson do your plumbing. $11. Francis Main 174—Adv.

Civil service examinations will occur in St. Joseph Sept. 12 and 13 and Oct. 1 and 26.

Painless Extractors: Drs. Bass & Bass, dentists, 716 1/2 Felix street. Telephone Main 4200—Adv.

Judge T. B. Allen has adjourned division No. 1 of the circuit court until Sept. 12.

Feeney & Downey for best Plumbing and Gas Fitting, 1092 Frederick Ave. Phone 116—Adv.

F. P. Meyer, dentist, has moved his office to 307 Corby Forsee building—Adv.

Meierhofer, the undertaker, with lady attendant, Ninth and Felix streets—Adv.

Dorcas Krown, the "dream wife," who helped make St. Joseph famous, is married again.

For the best values in Whiskies try Hilker's. Also his 25c Merchant's Lunch, 267 S. 6th St.—Adv.

Mrs. Frances Baum, mother of Dr. Harry Baum, of this city, died Monday in Kansas City.

Dr. Ernest G. Netherton, dentist, 823 Edmond street, ground floor of the Long building—Adv.

The new parcel post ruling, permitting packages valued up to $100 to be insured, went into effect Wednesday.

Robidoux Shoe Repair Co., 414 Francis. Phone 1011. Free call and delivery—Adv.

Something like 1,500 children took part in the first annual City Play ground day, at Plumber's Park, Tuesday.

Everything you need for any kind of Painting, Wallpaper, Chandelier's Paint & Glass Co., 417 Edmond St.—Adv.

The police are endeavoring, or were endeavoring, to shoot the women of the underworld off the streets of the city at night.

Learn to swim, and enjoy the fine water at the Natatorium, Second and Francis streets. O. B. Kay is the manager and lessee—Adv.

The entertainment committee of the Fall Fashion Show and Society Circus is arranging an attractive program for the event, which will be held in the Auditorium, Sept. 20-25.

Beautiful pictures for hall, parlor or library, artistic framing and fine art goods, St. Joseph Art Store, 823 Francis street—Adv.

The West German conference is being held in St. Joseph this week. About two hundred ministers and lay delegates are present.

Leave your watch and jewelry with Rohweder-Freymann to be repaired—Adv.

E. H. Zimmerman, cashier of the Toote-Lemon National bank, has gone to Little Lake, Minn., for his annual outing.

Dr. G. E. Ford. Practice limited to the extraction of teeth. 409 Corby Forsee—Adv.

The Associated Bible Students of the city, after a thorough canvas, have found that the city contains 15,274 occupied residences.

Spelman's restaurant, 418 Francis street, is one of the popular eating places in the city. Try it for the mid-day lunch; you will like the service and the location is most convenient—Adv.

The Hub Cloak and Suit company, 619 South Eighth street, has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors.

Suit for $10,000 has been filed by Ellen Strom against Edwin C. Hendricks, a dairyman, alleging breach of contract to marry.

John Lawless has been arrested on a state warrant on the charge of stealing a gold watch and $8 in cash from W. A. Reckard.

Wednesday a penalty of 1 per cent was added to unpaid city taxes. The penalty will be increased at the rate of 1 per cent each succeeding month they remain unpaid.

For Sale—3,000 acres in the "Ozark Country," safe from flood and drought. This is unimproved land and is near Lebanon, the county seat of Laclede County. It embraces some of the best land in the county. A splendid chance—now—to go into the "Ozark Country," before a big advance in land values gets in full swing. This section of Missouri is one of the best for raising stock, poultry, fruit, vegetables and farming in general. The land will be sold at less than present value to close an estate. John A. Duncan, Jr., 715 Edmond street, St. Joseph, Mo.—Adv.

Ninety teachers of the rural schools of Buchanan county were in session in this city Monday and Tuesday, getting organized for the year's work.

Marie Novick, an Austrian, came all the way from the bloody war zone of Europe, arriving in St. Joseph Monday, to marry her childhood sweetheart, James Janecek.

George W. Baier, the Frederick avenue saloon keeper, will pay a liberal reward to anyone who will furnish him with the name of the lady who sent him the "September Morn" scarf pin.

Hugh McNutt's band of twenty musicians, accompanied by Ralph Parland, St. Joseph's well-known harmonic, filled an engagement of several days the first of this week at the loud county (Kan.) fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed C. Chandice have the sympathy of many friends in the death of their little five-year-old son, Burney James, who passed away at the family home, 2623 Paton street, Monday morning.

Iverson M. Courtney, 25 years old, 1218 Beattie street, died Tuesday morning at a local hospital. He had been a resident of St. Joseph for twelve years.

Next Monday is Labor day, and everything is in readiness for one of the largest parades and celebrations ever held in the city.

The amount of building done in St. Joseph during the month of August this year showed an increase of 10 per cent over that of the corresponding month last year.

John Adams has filed suit against the St. Joseph Terminal Railway company for $10,000 damages for alleged personal injuries sustained July 18 last.

Mass meetings will be held next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights in the interests of the proposed city bonds. Other meetings are being held in opposition to the project.

Louise Coffey has brought suit to annul the marriage tie that bind her to William P. Coffey, in which indictments are alleged. Stephen B. Moffett wants a separation from his wife, Laura, on the grounds of abandonment.

A warranty deed filed Tuesday under the terms of which the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company transfers to William E. Spratt and Mrs. Eliza both A. Donovan, widow of the late John Donovan, the Ballinger building at Seventh and Edmond streets.

THE ST. JOSEPH SANATORIUM FOR RECTAL DISEASES

Third floor Ballinger Bldg., St. Joseph, Mo. Blind, Bleeding Piles cured without surgical operation. Local or general anesthesia. No Sloughing with Carbolic Acid. No pain. No loss of time from business. No pay until cure is complete. If interested write for booklet—Adv.

For Rent—Fine fruit, berry and truck farm about three miles from city limits on Asylum road, about eleven acres. There is a first-class house, barn and chicken house, and also a fine greenhouse on the place. Adds C. F. Ordern, 6th and Charles streets, or I. J. Binawanger, 111 South Third street, St. Joseph, Mo.

One of the best opportunities ever offered for a young attorney is at Barnard, Mo. I have been engaged in legal work here for the past thirty-eight years, and have built up and am now enjoying a good practice. The failure of my eyesight forces me to retire from practice, and I will sell my library and equipment at a very low figure, allowing my successor to step at once into a good practice in one of the best towns in northwest Missouri. P. J. Haliney, Barnard, Mo.—Adv.

Post Office Inspector William H. Jones, who for the past year has had charge of the St. Joseph district, was on Tuesday transferred to the Iowa division with headquarters at Fort Dodge, Iowa. The transfer of Inspector Jones comes in the nature of a promotion, and he will have added duties and added advantages. Inspector Jones is one of the most efficient operatives in the Middle West and an inspector who does his duty fearlessly, carefully and conscientiously.

DOINGS IN SOCIETY

Interesting Gossip Concerning the People of St. Joseph

Miss Neita Porter is visiting friends in Kansas City.

Mrs. Sarah Crandall has returned from a vacation in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harvey have returned from Hollister, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ludwig have returned from California.

Miss Nieta Connor is the guest of Kansas City friends.

Mrs. Clara Lyons entertained her high five club Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Frans have returned from a trip to the West.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Hansen have returned from Pablo Beach, Florida.

George Schnaitman returned Saturday from a month's fishing in Balsam Lake, Wis.

Mrs. Lawrence J. Stuppy has returned from a three months' sojourn in California.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Harris have returned from a pleasure trip to Colorado.

Miss Mary Davis has returned from Colorado, where she spent the summer.

Mrs. J. P. Britz and Mrs. E. H. Spratt visited in Kansas City this week.

The Woman's Club will begin regular fall sessions Sept. 6 with an elaborate programme.

Misses Eva and Rula Evans of Sedalia, who were the guests of Blanche and Grace Aylor, have returned home.

Miss Orpha Hayes gave a farewell party Tuesday night in honor of her guest, Miss Alice Coffey of Portland, Oregon.

The Misses Lorene and Aurelia Hockers and Margaret Huielein have returned from a two weeks' outing at Sugar Lake.

Mrs. George Hayes of Chicago was the honored guest at an Orpheum party Tuesday afternoon, given by Mrs. Paul Spurkay and Mrs. Barbara Nold.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Spencer and Mrs. Gus Prins and son, Spencer, spent Sunday and the early part of the week at Excelsior Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bachelder of Dixon, Ill., who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Morris, were honor guests at auction bridge Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Reed Wilcox and daughter, Mary Potter, of Hugo, Colo., visited Dr. and Mrs. T. E. Potter this week.

Miss Letta Corbett of Cincinnati and Mr. Clyde A. Madison will be married at the Madison home Sept. 8.

Miss Clara Johnson was hostess for an indoor picnic Tuesday night at her Savannah interurban home.

SHE WAS THE REMAINS

A negro died without medical attendance and the coroner went to investigate.

"Did Samuel Williams live here?" he asked the weeping woman who answered the door.

"Yessuh," she replied between sobs.

"May I see the remains?" asked the coroner.

"I de do remains," she answered proudly.

IT DIDN'T FETCH HIM

"Some men have no hearts," said the tramp. "I've been tellin' that feller that I am so dead broke that I have to sleep outdoors."

"Did that fetch him?" asked the other.

"Now, he tof me he was a-doin' the same thing, and had to pay the doctor for tellin' him to do it."

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—